

Kalamian Tagbanwa

List of [k] forms

Language: Kalamian Tagbanwa
 Informant: Rodolfo Aguilar
 Investigator: Ed. Ruch

(ka-)
kaap: *gapah	'husk of rice, to winnow rice'	kabin	'to have a weapon on one's person' kaat	'light, lamp'	kabu: *gabuh	'ashes' kababaga'	'swelling on the body'	kabung	'mold' kabkab: *gabgab	'to grow wider, and deeper e.g. festering wound'	kabut: *gabut	'to arrive' kabidbid	'to walk together with arms around each other'	kabuyaw	'a lime-like citrus tree' kabit: < *kabit	'to be linked or connected to'	*kabuRaw kablay: *qarbay	'to carry something by suspending it from the shoulder diagonally'	kaka'	'come loose' kabli: < Sp cable	'cable'	kakay: *qagay	'foot' kabra'	'to wrench loose'	kakbu'	'scream' kaba	'then, next'	kaklem: *qalsam	'sour' kabala': *qabaRah	'upper arm'	kada: < Sp cada	'each' kabalakngaanen	'type of spirit who dwells halfway between heaven and earth' derived from tenga 'half'	Kadlay	' type of grain ' kabang	'depression in rock where rain/collects'	kadung: *qajung	'pointed nose' kabatwen	'stone-fish'	kadyes < *kadyes	'cow peas' kabed	'rudder'	kagang	'fresh water crab' kabed	'to put one's arms around some one'	kagkag	'to strike at with claws' kabeles	'name given by new husband to deceased husband of the woman he has married'	kagang	'to spreadeagle one's way between two adjacent rock faces in a cave' kabid	'the two end points of some thing, e.g. beach'	kaka: < *kahiR	'to roughly push aside with back hand motion' kabig: < *kabig	'to consider or treat someone in a certain way'	kail: < *kahi	'orange tree and its fruit' kaging	'extremely dry'
		kaisan	'sometimes'
		kala: < *kara	'kind of turtle'
		kalabus	'jail'
		kalabasa	'squash'
		Kalag: < *kalag	'soul'
		kalabagu:	'string used to spin top starter rope' kalamay	'arms of the octopus' kalamkam:	'to feel ticklish' kalamintik	'grasshopper'

kalamraganen	'morning star, evening star'	kaliput	'to be encrusted over with rock' kalangkalang	^{act unthinkingly} 'to be unaware of what's going on upon being wakened from ^{the} sleep'	kaliputung	'firewood glowing at one end, used for light at night or to light another fire' kalanguyung	'megapode'	kaliraw ^r aw	'fuzzy, indistinct appearance' kalarang	'thorn'	kalis	'to level off ganta measure' kalasiaw < *karasyaw	'deer'	kaliskis	'unusual ability in some activity, the sign of such ability' kalat < *kalat	'rattan rope; rust'	kalit ¹	'take a moment to do some thing' kalaw < *qaraw	'to snatch away'	kalit ²	'wavy-bladed sword used by Muslims' kalaykalay	[fish] type	kaliweswes	'to rotate foot in the sea to slow down drift of the boat while fishing' kalaylay	[banana] type	kalmada < Sp calmar	'calm sea' kalbit < *kalbit	'to touch on the shoulder to draw attention'	kalmut < *kalmut	'to grab the flesh of another with tips of the fingers and pull it as a prelude to a fight' kalbu < Sp calvo	'bald'	kalput	'semen' kaldaw	'sun, day'	kalu < *qah(ə)lu	'pestle' kaleg	'to be startled'	kaluay < *qalubay	'rice panicle' kalep	'smelling of urine'	kalukalu	'to heat up leftover rice' kali	'quickly'	kalug < *qalug	'ditch' kalibangbang	'butterfly'	kalugti	'red-colored camote' *qalipangbang		kalumata	'very fragrant perfume' kalima < *qalimah	'hand'	kalumbayed	'welt raised on skin afte whipping' kalimangu < *qalimangu	[crab] type	kaluntani	'dirt ingested by worms and then later deposited in small circular piles on top of the ground' kalimasagan < *qalimasag	[crab] type	kalung-kalung	'woven circlet of rattan' kalimbuas	'to suffer supernatural sanction' kalinay	'to go slowly'
kalintug	'to reverberate'
kalingkin < *kalingkin	'little finger'
kaliparas	'dizzy'
kalipasangan	'to deliberately hurry' kalipesed	n. 'the navel cord that adheres temporarily to the navel after the cord is cut' v. 'treat navel ^{cord} with medicine' kalupkup	'splints used to strengthen a broken bone'	kamian	'northeast prevailing wind'

	'to marcott a branch of a fruit-tree'	kamiklug	'testacles' kalut	'the breeze that immediately precedes a rain'	kaministiran	'n. that which is needed to satisfy or gratify one's desires' (from min) kaluyang	'freshwater shrimp'	kamped	'for each one of a group to be included in the distribution of some thing' kalyaw	'to call upon spirit of the dead to curse some one', or for aid'	kampi	'twin, to take sides with' kalyek	'to move'	kampus	'to run out of something for supply of something to be exhausted, to come to the end of something'
- kalyu'	'the long way around, roundabout', esp. in speech'	kamtangan	'content of something, meaning, what is involved in some action; the sense in which something is meant' from betang to the
- kama'	'to scratch an itch; bed'	- kamu'	'stale smell' kamaalan	'a person's worth, something worthy of others esteem, delicious food, highest price fish, the main day of a festival'	- kamudla'	'medicinal plant' kamandung	'clitoris'	- kamuga'	'pinkeye' kamarun	'shrimp'	kamuling	'hardened secretion of eye after sleeping that needs to be washed out' kamaruti		- kamumula'	'black snake said to spit its poison' (from bul spit out)
- kamaruti'	'boat's cabin'	kamumutwan	'one who has a reputation for leaving his wife' (from butwan leave)
- kamata'	'to care for, watch over'	kamurus	'type of rice' kamantud	'hornbill'	kananaban	'one who has a reputation of stealing the wives of others' (from taban steal)
- kambabalu'	[fish] type	kanay, < *qanay	'for awhile, please' kambing < *kamdig	'goat'	kankan	'to cave in'
kambung	'when shaman suspends his paraphernalia above sick to effect healing'	kandas	'liver' kamkam < *kam+	'get hold of, lay hands on to use'	kandirisingan	'little finger' kametek	'pink eye'
kamey	'ink of the octopus' kameyeng	'isolated, separated, cut off from'

kapungul	'trunk, stem, beginning'	→ karit	'curved harvesting tool' kapus < *kapus	'youngest child in family'	karitun ^{Sp}	'wheel, tire' kaputput	type of [fish]	- karni ^{Sp}	'meat, flesh' kapuul	type of [fish]	- karsa'	'to reduce size of clot by cutting off some'
- kapwa'	'to dig out, or plow out, something buried in ground- or an ant digging out rice seeds newly planted'	→ karu'	'ladle' karung	'to sit down'
kapwas	'to be blown out to sea by wind'	karus ^{Sp}	'to scratch deeply with claws or fingernails' kapyat	'for foot to grasp onto something'	karut	'enemy' karabaw	'water-buffalo'	kasalanan	result of the act, i.e. punishment 'sin, fault, punishment' karakulan	'the main part of a house excluding porch or extensions' (from dakulu 'big')	< Tg karagay	'frying pan'	- kasawa'	*qasawa' spouse' karamal	'to work at night by the light of some thing'	kaskas	'to deflect or turn away reject'
< *damaR		- kasku'	'hull of a boat' karaskas	'gravelly beach'	- kasi'	'very good in obtaining his desires, i.e. successful but connotes short life' karawat	[crab]	kasilyas < Sp	'toilet' karem ^{Sp}	'dark spot on skin from birth which does not grow in size'	kasim ^{Sp}	'salt' kareres	'wrinkled, withered'	- kasisya'	'armpit'
- karga' < Sp carga	'to load'	- kasta'	'to breed an animal'
- kargu'	'to be in charge of what belongs to another'	- kastigu'	'to punish or discipline'
- karinyu'	'to be cordial so other person will not be inclined to stay angry with you'	- kasu' < Sp	'legal suit' kasual	to pry by means of a lever karip ^{Sp}	'to peel off the skin from a fruit with a knife'	kasuy < Sp	'cashew nut'
	'to scrape off the skin of'	kaswal	'to pry up with a heavy stick'
- karira' Sp	'race, career' course in school'	kataba ^{ben}	'black, flying insect that stings' karirig	'to be slanted at a rakish angle'	katad	'flatten out, smooth out flat' katamban	'agreement, reach an agreement (Sumatran)'	katutuun	'for teeth to be partially decayed' katamtaman	'just right, exact fit, balanced'	kaun	'dike; crate' katang	'grip between the teeth'	kaunuunuan	'something to do with another, personal relationship' kataw	'well-known, already discovered, already utilized by man'	katumbal < *katunbar	'hot pepper'

KXXXXXXXXXX katebteban	' ever since the very beginning '	kawa' < *kawa	'large cooking urn' katel	'the stiff part of a coconut leaf in the middle'	kawal	'material which ^{Sometimes} something encases the body of a child at birth' katep *qatép	'roof, nipa'	kawalen	'person who cannot be hurt by arms' kateteng	'stunted, arrested, incomplete growth'	kawawa' < T ₃ (?)	'to feel sorry for' katigayunan	'favorable reaction or attitude toward the desire of another person'	kawat	'since' katil < *katir	'outrigger that rides in water'	kawayan *kawayan	'type of [bamboo] katin	'squat'	kawed	rudder' katiti'	'hornet, wasp'	kawet	'type of [tridacna shell]' katu'	'to search for something seen or located but subsequently left; to return to/for something previously left behind'	kawewe'	'type of [shell] which adheres to rock, but comes up for protection when pryed loose' katungdalem	'when the heavenly bodies can be only dimly seen through the cloud cover'	kawin-kawin (kabin-kabin)	'to be armed with; to wear in a scabbard' katuglayunan	'force of an argument, its compelling logic, the proper conclusion to be drawn from an argument' (from tuglayun)	kawitan	'rooster' katuldan	'mud-dauber'	kaya' < T ₃ (?)	'can, able'
katutukatutu'	'to be adjacent to each other'	kayab	'to fan something' kayam *qayam Kayamut kayamut	'to play, relax' kayangag	'kind of bird'
		kayas	'to scrape off'
		kayaw	'bark of dog'
		kayemeg	'to tuck extremities close to the body, with backbone straight; ^{eg.} like a cat' kayeskes	'scabies'	kelas	'easily frightened, skittish' kayet	'hidden speech term used by elders to refer to the vagina of a pre-pubescent girl who is not hiding her private parts'	kelba' kälba	'to be apprehensive' kelekele'	'hearty type of laugh'

		keleng-keleng	'slow-growth'
kayeteng; < qayätən	'teat, tip of tail' v. to fondle the teats	keleng-kelengen	'curly-hair'
- kayumad'	'young hair louse'	kelmet	'do something half-heartedly' kayumut, Kayuyumut	'suction cups on feet of lizards or on tentacles of octopus', 'toes'	kemkem < *kämkam	'fist; to hold in one's fist' 'to be under the power of'
kayungkung	'bent over with age' 'to have knees tucked under body'	kemel	'to be congealed together or closely packed together'
(ke-)		kemelkemel	'stick together' kebal	'lump of something' 'to split off from'	kemeskemes	'hair plastered to head after getting wet' kebes	'to remove one object resting its weight upon another by sliding it off one end'	kekenay kenay	'sand' kendal	'to yell'
		kendat-kendat	'for a girl to flirt' kedked	'that which is used for tying'; v. to tie up'	keneng	'aggressive' kedeg < *kädəg	'move'	kenep	'perfect row of teeth or kernals on an ear' keeb	'to be in bent over position'	kenet-kenet	'pleat' keen	'to stay permanently'	kepa' < *qəpəh kepid-kepid	'rice bran' 'flaky, layered' keet	'to tighten something'	kepes < *kəpəs	'deflated' keetkeet	'to become tangled'	kere'	'epilepsy, shrunken clot' keged-keged	'item toward which enthusiasm is projected'	kerekere'	'wrinkled up, curly hair bent wire, clothing' keged	'do something enthusiastically with drive; vigorously pursue a course of action'	keregteng	'curly-headed' kereng	'to stand up' Speak on behalf of kerengkereng	'take sides in land a dispute, speak on behalf of someone else' keget < *käRat	'bite'	kerep	'fade from sight, e.g. sun to set' kelad < *qələd	'leaf, sheet of paper'
kelag	'to be startled'

keseg	'lateral line on side of fish'	kikilayen	'forehead' kesegkeseg	'retarded development, stunted growth'	kikiru'	' type of [fish] kesen	'to converse with others'	kiklep	'dark' kesyab	'to suddenly scatter in all directions'	kiklug *qitlug	'egg' keta-keta'	'to go easy on someone or something when the full treatment is possible'	kiknel	'to twitch, move slightly' ketab	'gnawing fear and uncertainty'	kidel	'for an egg to develop bloody streaks in the albumen, first signs of fetus but still edible' ketang	'to fall over'	kiig *kahig (?)	'to gently push aside with back hand motion'
lc. kikik Ketat	'to be ajar, slightly opened'	kiis	'kiss' ketay	'to extend a line into the distance'	kilab	'blink of an eye' ketket < *katkat	'gnaw'	kilabkilab	'to blink the eye' keteb	'exclamation used when mildly frustrated'	kilam-kilam	'to eat along of something quickly; to single-mindedly search for something' keteg	'to block or bar the way'	kilas	'unbalanced, tippy' keteg-keteg	'feeling shaky inside because of fear'	kilaw *qilaw	'intense brightness' ketel	'strength'	kikix kilgig	'file' keyeng	'to shake head horizontally'	kilid	'stinger of a bee, wasp, which is left behind; for something embedded in flesh or body to be moved or out of line so as to cause pain' keyengkeyeng	'to shake head horizontally to indicate surprise or negation; to tilt from side to side'	kililing	'the sound of a bell ringing'
(ki-)		kiling	'type of [bamboo] kikaw < *qihaw	'to roast on the coals'	kilu'	'that used to wipe the anus clean, crooked, unit of measure, 1 kilogram' kiaykiay	'type of a shell'	kilukilu	'type of [fish] kibali'	IT means that...	kimi'	'the beveled part of a blade which gets honed' kibaw	'type of a clam'	kimikimi'	'to move around' 'motion of an unborn fetus in the womb' kibut	'to be surprised, startled' kimpur	'greedy, gluttonous'	kismud-kismud	'to feel happy, encouraged' kmm kimun < *qimun	'to manifest sexual jealousy'	kiswalkiswal	'to move arms and legs around in random fashion' kinagman, Kinadman Kinagus kinampu	'magical power' " " 'ancestor'	kitikiti	'to tickle someone' kinatakwalan	'the cash part of the bride-price' (from takwal)	kiup	'large manta ray'

Kinatalaanaan kindat < *kindat	'PART of bride price given to girl's mother' 'to raise the eyelids in order to acknowledge another'	kiwag	'to be crooked, out of line' kinita < *qinit	'heat'	Kuam Kuam < *quham kuari	'Thrush (mouth rash)' 'as if, like' kintab < *kintab	'shiny'	kuarta < Sp	'money' kinu	'coconut almost mature, water can just barely be heard sloshing inside'	kuartu < Sp	'room' kinut < *qinut	'to conserve resources of one kind or another'; 'stunted growth'	kuat	'remove'
kipil < *qipil	'hardwood tree used for houseposts'	kuaw < *quhaw	'to feel thirsty' kipit < *qipit	'to carry under the arm'; 'to be wedged between two things'	kuay < *quhay	'rice panicle' kiray	'to wink with one eye, as at a girl'	kuay < *quway	'a type of [rattan]' kirepen < *qū Dipan	'slave'	kubransa	'to secure a large quantity of something' kirepen ta bayawak	^{ng} 'kingfisher'	kubali	'just as if'
kirib	'cogon grass'	kuban < *quban	'gray-hair' kirip	'to fade from sight'	kubi < *qubih	'ubi'
Kira < *qiDu?	'dog'	kubud < *qubud	'tender, is edible shoot of coconut tree' 'inner core of banana trunk' kirus	'area just below the breastbone'	kubul	'burn up completely' kiskis	'lower portion of cliff in contact with earth or sea'. 'to remove s.t. small adhering to s.t. else'	kubung	'to be piled up or heaped high' kisira	'if only'	kukbang	'seed, pit'
		kuklun < *quslun	'blanket' kukulunan < *qulun	'pillow' (from Malun) kudkud < *kudkud	'to shred'
		kudlap	'lightning'
		kidlat < *kidlat	'lightning'

kudung < *quduŋ	'pointed nose'	kumang	'hermit crab; to be emptied of contents' kugita < *kurita	'octopus' XX	kumba'	'lungs' kuinta'	'like, as if it were'	kumbatel	'raised bump on skin due to insect bite' kuintu'	'to tell stories'	kumbinasiun	'to secretly team up to defeat another' kulabu'	'to be heavily dusted on; to be filmy, hazy, greyish color'	kumbini'	'taboo, restriction' kulalay	'long-term, prolonged, extended'	kumbinyu'	'persuade, influence' kulanlan	'flying ant ant'	kumbira'	'wedding, celebration' kulang < *kulan	'lacking'	kumpanya' sp	'group' kulap	'deep redness of something'	kumpurni' sp	'as many as' kulasyun	'to become scarce, to experience scarcity of food'; 'to fast'	kumu sp	'since' kulay kulay	'color'	kumus	'since' kulbu'	'sets fire to objects in order to destroy them, e.g. arsen '	kumun	'situation where many are opposed to one by coming at it from all sides' kulkul	'cough'	kumusta' sp	'to greet, to shake hands with'
kulintas sp	'necklace'	kumuy	'to be contaminated by having been smeared with blood or fat' kulit	'white'	kunayung	'one place adjacent to another'; 'where a trail ends' kultit	type of fish ; 'to harvest second growth of millet'	kundiman	'large red kerchief' kultu'	'outdoor religious service or in a house'	kundisiun sp	'conditions of an agreement' kulu < *quluh	'head'	→ kunlalaknit	'small fruit bat' kulub < *quləj	'worm'	kunsiu' sp	'advice' kulun < *qulun	'to lay the head upon'	kunsur/kunsul	'millionaire' kulur < sp color	'color'	kuntintu' sp	'satisfied with'
kulung kulug	'enclosed, imprisoned'	kunu-kunu'	'do something without sufficient forethought or preparation' kulyap	'shingles disease'	kunul	'trails used by wild animals, esp. wild pig stem of betel pepper vine' kulyapet	'serious speech defect where most everything is mispronounced' kuma < *qumáh	'swidden'

kung < *kug	'if, when'	kurus/krus	'to cross the finger, to show absolute no answer or absolute yes' kungal qugal	'sad cry of a dog left behind'	kurut	'type of edible root which is poisonous if not treated' kungkista'	'discover location of edible birds within a ^{new} cave'	kurutkurut	' type of [snake]' kupa i gupa	'hen'	kuskus < *kuskus	'to scrub' kupas kupas	'to loose luster, become faded'	kuspad	'ridden with lice' kupit	'pincer'	kusyam	' type of [rice]' kupitinsia' Sp	'competes with, compares with'	kuta + skt kotta	'cotta, fort' kurabu'	'gray color'	kutkut	'suck'
kural Spk	'fence'	kutin *qutin	'penis' kuralun	'braided nylon rope'	kutitya'	'harvest, ^{season for} gathering or harvesting' kuram < *quDan	'rain'	kutu'	'taboo, restriction' kurap	'for eyes to become temporarily dim'	kutun	'pile up several layers of something' kurbut	'to start off in a burst of speed'	kutung	'rice bird, sparrow' kuri'	'difficulty'	kutuz *qatut	'to break wind' kuring *qujin	'charcoal'	kuut < *quhut	'sheaf to which rice grains are attached before threshing' for kuriput < *kuriput	'person with socially unacceptable qualities'	Kuut Kuut	'fishline or rope to become all tangled up' kurisem	'scowling countenance revealing anger'	kuyapkuyp	'to oscillate in the breeze' kurit	'to draw a straight line with something that leaves a surface mark as against an indentation'	kuyapes uyapes	'withered, wrinkled' kursu Sp	'dysentary and vomiting'	kuyas	'to become sallow-faced, white faced; to be immature in appearance' kursunada Sp	'strong desire for something, takes his fancy'	kuyuti < *qayut	'to have sexual intercourse' kurta'	'clotting of blood' 'jackknife' kuyagnun	'type of tridacna shell'
kurup	'heavenly body goes out of sight beyond horizon or behind obstruction'

(-k-)

abaka' < * abaká	'abaca'	agkul	'loose fitting'
abka'	'greedy, selfish'	alikaluk <	'dust' abakla'	'to be surprised'	alिकासु'	'glowing ash carried by wind' aka' < * kaka?	'elder sibling'	alikedan	'low threshold for pain' akad < * akad	'to dig a hole'	alikedang	'the inedible part of something edible, e.g., eggshell, corncob, ' akam	'to clear the throat to draw the attention of another or to announce one's presence'	angkal	'burning sensation in stomach' akas	'quickly used up'	angkapan	'scabbard' akbay	'to drape over something'	angka < ankas	'to ride double on'; to depend upon for help akbu'	'extremely high'	angkat	'to gently massage upward' akdes	'spicy'	angken an()kan	'nephew, niece' akes	'belt'	apiki' sp	'to be too close together' akid	'to ladle out onto a plate'	arkila' sp	'to rent' akig < * akig	'jealousy'	arikdi'	'to feel a longing for and to say "ari aning"' akis	'to cheer on contestants'	ari aning	'to feel deprived of something or someone; to feel deep emotion about; potentially taboo to do this'
akla' sp	'anchor' (rare)	arikundal <	'type of banana' akles	'to pull towards one with both hands; schemes'	aruku'	'to sit with knees up close to chest and hunched over due to cold' akmaw	'to vigorously stir up sliced kurut in a sack with one's hands to hasten dissipation of poison into the ocean'	asिकासु'	'to take care of something' aku'	'expert climber, sure-footed'	aske, atke	'to know how; to know' akun	'to remove from container by pulling it out'	atke	'to know; to know how to akutakut	'type of [ant]'	baka' sp	'to bleach'; 'cow' akuyakuy	'to gently and continuously stir'	bakad	'to dig up with a pick' akwat *hakwat	'to carry away'	bakas,	'to be joint-owners of something' akyup	'to close up tight, to be enveloped within'	bakasiun sp	'vacation time' bakay	'to walk along the beach'	bangkal	'mature, hard, e.g. bamboo' baked <	'strong'	bangkas <	'variegated in color' bakes <	'monkey'	bangkaw <	'spear' baklet	'to alternate between'	bangkil <	'projecting tooth of male wild pig' baklu' < *baqRuh	'new'	bangkuat	'slightly curved near the ends' bakulud <	'a hill with flat surface surrounded on three sides by valleys' plateau	barangkas	'horseshoe crab' bakta'	'to gorge oneself upon'	barku' Sp	'ship' baktal	'death wake'	baskey	'to sneeze' bakukang <	'tropical ulcer'	baskin <	'even if'

bakuku bakuku < *baququ	'tortoise'	batikal	'to ricochet' bakunawa' <	'type of spider that lives in a hole in the ground'	bayuktut <	'to curl up the body' bakurung	'woven circlet of rattan'	bekad	'cotton, kapok' bakyaw	'sterile, infertile'	bekas	'to put tension on the spear of a pig-trap or of a spear gun so that its ready to be released' balakad	'to roll over and over on the ground'	beklad <	'to spread out flat' balakyang	'to alternate between'	beklas	'to remove camote vines from an area by rolling them up into a ball preparatory to digging up the roots' balanaken	type of [snake]	bekras	'to yank hard so as to tear off' balangka'	'to split open'	begkes <	'to bind together' balasikwanen	'slim'	belkang < *bāRqan	'molar tooth' balikid <	'to look behind'	bengka'	'to grasp along edge or lip preparatory to moving object or turning it over' balintukbalintuk	'to successively stand up and fall down in trying to escape'	bikling	'to carry suspended from the hand' baliskad <	'reversed'	bikulug	type of [rattan] baliske	'collar bone'
balitektek	'to ask lots of questions of'
balukbuk	type of [fish]
banikasan	'good health' baniskal	'rice cooked so that little or no water is left' bingkil	'branch of bamboo cut short and left attached'	bulagtak	'to be dispersed or broken down into smaller units' bingkit	'lieing side by side in close proximity; ^{close relationship}	bulalakaw<	'shooting star' bitukun< *bitugan	'star; ^{alternates with dumakel}	buntut	'to part or break, of a rope' buka<	'opening, widened place' bukad	'to elicit a conditioned response from another, e.g. when hunting dog barks at first sight of wild pig and pig responds to challenge'	bungkad	'for something dormant to become active' bukag	'corn cob'	bungkaras	'to rise up suddenly' bukagkagan	'completely open to the sky with no cover or shade'	bungkiat	'to show sudden opposition to'

bukal<	'to boil'	burkiat	'to peel off wrapper from; to open eyes wide; to peel back covering to inspect corn' bukangkang<	'for a flower to open up'	buri<kat bukatud	'hill'	buskad<	'to open up' bukawas	'open-sided, open-ended'	buskul	'to bulge' bukay	'white-colored animal'	buyakyakan	'generous' bukaya< *bugaya	'crocodile'	kabeg< kabag	type of [bat] bukid<	'mountain'	karem< qarém	'dark spot on skin from birth which does not grow in size' bukli'	'to tell a lie'	dakat	'to be reached by the eye or mind' buklug	'backbone'	dakele<	'many'
buklus	(type of [basket])	daktal< *daqtar	'flooring' bukngil	'sprout just poking through the soil'	daku'	'eldest uncle or aunt' buku<	'back'	dakulu<	'large' big bukul<	'raised bump on body caused by being struck'	daguuk	'deeply resonating sound' buktul<	'hunch backed, bent over'	duluk	'to gather remaining debris into piles for burning after firing a swidden' bukud<	'bent over; 3:00 p.m.'	dapuk	'to clap one's hands' bukuta<	'to be enclosed within something'	dekal	'to burn, a flame' bukyat	'generous'	dekem	'to chew' diabaniku'	'type of spear gun with a barb'	ikaw < *hikaw	'selfish' dikan	'cause of something, where it started'	ikbaw	'to scream and holler for sheer delight while playing' <small>whether from delight or fear in order to draw attention of others</small> dikel < *liqəR	'neck'	ikit	'to place extremely close together' diklat	'first light at dawn on eastern horizon'	iklab < *iRqab	'belch' diklem	'murky'	iksir	'to enforce an ordinance'

- dipiktu' sɔ	'the cause of trouble, defeat'	ikuy, ukuy < ikuR	'tail'
- diskapa'	'to swim safely to shore'	igkit	'to place close together so no space between, e.g. fence'
- diskuida'	'to have an accident'	impaki' sɔ	'to take inventory of one's stock; also to pack belongings away' dumakel	'star'	ingkasu sɔ	'but the problem is...'
dungkus	'type of tridacna shell'	ik iskala'	'for a ship to dock' duruklan	'throat, esophagus'	iskandalu' sɔ	'to commit an anti-social act' ekeb/ukub	'fingernail, toenail, claws'	iskantadu' sɔ	'to have magical abilities, to be enchanted' ekelekel	'belongings'	iskantu' sɔ	'to be enchanted' eket	'going at full tilt, e.g. work, fighting, harvesting'	iskuila' sɔ	'student, pupil' ekgang	'to experience extreme thirst'	istukada'	'to engage in a fencing duel' ekmeng	'to keep quiet'	isturungka' sɔ	'to disassemble' engke / engke'	'to speak or read haltingly'	laka' <	'few' gakmet	<small>piece of cloth tied around waist to keep air from entering navel</small> 'rag used to wipe up feces of baby (baby's)	lakad-lakad	'rolling back and forth while lying down' galmuk	'grunting of pigs'	lakan < *Raqaŋ	'lightness of weight' ginikanan <	'parent'	lakawlakaw	'dusk just before the darkness of evening' gugulukun	'eyebrow'	lakay	'for different varieties of rice seeds to be mixed together' ikas	'to remove a cover or block so that object is free (ears, mask)'	lakbang <	'wide' ukas	'to remove a cover; to emerge from period of mourning'	lakdang <	'to take a big step over some thing to avoid it' lakday	'to lay down in an extended manner'	lekeb < *kələb	'to lie face down' lakēplakēp	'eyelid'	leken <	'to reduce size of body by hunching down & rolling up into a ball' lakgad	'type of skin disease occurring in folds of the skin'	lekge'	'to improperly cook rice due to low fire resulting in mushiness' lakitlakit	'non-coral rock that protrudes from the ocean, has ritual use'	lelemkan	'soft area between ribs and pelvis' laknitlaknit	'to progressively reduce something by small chunks until consumed, e.g. fish-bait'	leskag	'to swell up in size'

- laksa' <	'myriad of'	likarem	'dusk' laksawan	'water texture of certain squashes'	likas	'to avoid trouble'
- laksu' <	'to run'	likaw	'to coil rope' laktang	'to hop over something to avoid it.'	likay	'to avoid'
laktaw <	'to by-pass someone on the trail'	likdulikdu'	'to zig-zag' lakted <	'to transfer'	liked	'to tread upon' lakub	'half a coconut shell; to cover over with a half-shell'	likeglikeg	'wavy edge of something, e.g. blade' lakun < *qalun	'wave'	likes < *ligas < *lisəhaq	'lice-eggs; circumference of something' lakyub	'to breed, ^e to mate with'	liket	'to cook in such a way as to be very brittle and crunchy'
- lamku'	'to underestimate the difficulty or prowess'	likid <	'to be rolled up as in a ball'
- langka' <	'jackfruit'	likin	'to roll up into a ^{Share} circle' lāngkag	'to long for something'	likting-likting	'to jump high' langkapan	'bamboo flooring that is tied together so it can easily be rolled up and transported'	likyad	'to ^{turn} turn one's ankle so that it is sprained'
- langke'	'affectionate name for baby girl'	lakgas	'to get exasperated' lax laskaw	'root'	liskad	'to get free of'
lekat	'to return'	luka' <	'wound'
		lukad	'dig up by the roots'
		lukay	'long bamboo torch'
		lukbu'	'to jump'

luki'	'for a snake to coil up in preparation to strike'	pakbung pakdul	'to give'
lukngis	'to raise the nose slightly to show impatience'	paki' <	'to step in such a way that one's balance is endangered, i.e. feet directly in line or crossed' luksa'	'mourn for the dead' luktun	'to increase by adding more weight to what is already being carried'	pakil	'to sideswipe so as to force change of position of one sideswipped' lukut	'to live in the same house with others for awhile for some purpose'	pakit < *paqit	'bitter' pakitad	'to recede gradually'
lukutlukut	'orchid'	pakli'	'exchange'
lugmuk <	'mud'	pakultad	'to sponsor or start a project' makan	'stage of growth just before ripening sets in e.g. papaya, bananas'; 'generic term for paddy rice'	pakultang	'type of fishing technique in which bati ¹ carried to bottom by rock which detached allows bait to be carried by the current near bottom' makinilya' Sp	'typewriter' malagket <	'glutinous rice'	paigkat	'tide begins to recede from high water mark' mangkuk <	'bowl'
marka' Sp	'brand on an animal; brand-name on goods; to make a mark upon'	painunuku'	'to advise'
maski	'even if, although'	palamingku'	type of [ant] muku'	type of [banana]	palasipikadu' Sp	'counterfeit or contraband item' nakaa	'demonstrative, near, out of sight' ^{Sight}	panambukun	'to swell up, e.g. sting' paka < *paga	'thigh'	pangaku' <	'promise' pakang	'to swing down at a 90 degree angle with an instrument in order to land a hard blow upon'	panged	'birth - cord' pangki' pangki'	'noise made by movement or speech' pakatu'	'return to known place' ^{cf. kata}	papakiten/ papakditen	'gall bladder' pakay	'to give birth for the first time'	parakul <	'axe' parukpukan	'squirrel'
pakbung	'to be like something else in some way'	parangka' Sp	'to speak frankly to'
		paskin	'sign'

pasikutsikut	'interminable complexity'	puklut	'to let something drop through aperture', <small>to escape from the grasp of</small> patikang	'to manage something well'	puknaan	'early-maturing variety' patukud	'cuttle fish'	puksa'	'to be completely eliminated or destroyed' payukan < *pawikan	'turtle'	puku' < *pugu	It type of ^{serious} sickness' peknga'	'speak nasally'	pungkul	'to be shortened by cutting off' pelekdey	fish [fish]	pupusukun < *pusug	'heart' pesken (< *pesqan?)	'pubic area'	purki sp	'because'
pika'	'birth-mark'	rika'	'split, crack' pikas	'dark blotches on the skin which spread'	rungkal	'loosely packed' pikatpikat	'to blink the eyes'	saka'	'to copy or follow' pikdit	'to squeeze with all the fingers to see if soft or ripe'	sakan < *saqan	'to carry on shoulder' pikiti'	'to get someone in a position where he can no longer make a move'	sakang <	'crotch; the measurement of pants from the crotch to the hem' piklat	'hole in floor caused by broken flooring'	sakar	'to have the ability to handle a task' piknut	'to pinch the nostril shut'	sak sakat	'to enter into a crowd or into a forest so as to be lost from view' pikay	'parrot'	sakbat	'knife' pikwa'	'for a container to be shrunken or altered from its original shape'	sakbay	'to drape something over so that it stays put'
pingkaw	'for fingers or hand to be rigid and so useless'	sakdal	'to boast of one's prowess often to the detriment of others' pingkay	'to walk with a limp permanently'	sakdang	'to hang up on a hook or peg' pipigken	'eyelashes'	sakdip	'to slice the length of something with a sharp instrument' piskanpiskan	'absolutely clear'	sake'	'to be breathing fast and shallowly' puaki	'odd-numbered'	sakep	'subject, to be struck by something' pukis	'to be cut in two'	saket	'measurement' (alt. pan of takes) puklit	'to pull down covering so as to expose e.g., corn husk, foreskin of penis' puklu'	'to remove one's upper clothing' saklang	'to reach out a long distance with the leg to negotiate a difficult place'	sampuk<	'to meet head-on', as of chickens in cock fight saklat	'bail out all the water from a well or a boat'	suntutuk<	'to hit with the fist' saklaw saklaw	'to head off something, to block'	sangka'	'to file down the biting edge of the teeth until all are the same height' saklet	'to be carrying a sheathed bolo'	sangkad	'to plumb the depths of something' saklut	'to excavate or remove dirt or water from a hole'	sangkap<	'to be outfitted or equipped with'

sakmal	'to clamp down on with the jaws so as to tear off part of an object or to twist it'	sangkay	'to make head of another, hit something hard' sakmit	'to grasp with the claws while on the wing'	sangkel	'to be hindered' sakmu'	'for two things or people to meet in the middle, or to agree with each other'	sangkit/ santik<	'strike two things together with a glancing blow' saksak < *sak+sak	'to stab'	saramangka'	'cat's cradle' sakta'	'guess, estimate' (alt. pron. of taksa)	saruk <	'to dip water' saktar	'to make an invidious comparison'	seka'	'to be up against a threatening situation with no options' saku' sp	'sack'	sekag	'for hair or feathers to stand out stiffly' sakul	'type of fish'	sekeb<	'to measure the exact volume of something by a unit measure' sakun	'type of fish'	seked	'to secure by tying' sakuru' sp	'to aid the bereaved'	seket	'at full strength' sakuy	'to mention something in passing'	sikad	'to chase, seek after'
sagket	'to tie to' (alt. pron. of tagkes)	sikat<	'showing off' sageke'	'to be so weighted down that shoulders are hunched up to support the head'	sikdap	'to catch a glimpse of'
sagukmu'	'to bring the ends of a fish-net together to completely enclose the fish'	sikdet	[hawk] sikgel	'to be fed up with'
		siki'	'to diverge from rest of group' sikiten	'type of fish'

siklad	'shaman in the prime of his power'	sungka <	'shell-game' siklat <	'a type of fence made by placing small bamboos close together'	sungkud	'to use stick as an aid to walking' sikrita 'sp	'to secretly gather damaging information'	sungkul	'hump on the back of an animal' sikup	'to sneak up on someone unnoticed'	sungkut	'to be wrapped up so as to be completely hidden' simpaku'	'type of small round fruit used for necklaces'	surkat	'short cut' subrikama'	'python'	tabkaw	'to interrupt' subuk	'hunger'	tabuyukun	'bladder' suka <	'vomit'	taka' < taka'ø	'to be red up with'
sukab	'to find out if something was really said by going to the one who said it'	takaa	'locative demonstrative near, out of sight' sukat <	To measure'	takas <	'land as distinct from sea; to escape from capture' sukdip	'to insert something thin between two tight-fitting surfaces'	takab	'greedy, gluttonous' sukli <	'to change money; to arrive after another person has left'	takaw < takaw	'to steal' suklub	'to completely cover from the top of ST.'	takbul buR	'broadcast seed' sukma'	'to ask a question, to ask for in marriage'	takdel* takdeR	'stamp foot on floor or ground' suknit	'to prick prick the skin with sharp instrument'	taked <	'attach by affixing to another object'; ^{to be completely stymied} suksuk < suksuk	'to insert between two objects close together'	takel	'to breath out ^{noisily} with noise upon exertion' suku'	'to surrender'	taken	'attach by affixing to another object' sukul <	'to measure something'	takep <	'cover' sukun *suqun	'to carry something on top of one's head'	takes <	'measure' sukut <	'to du dun for payment of debt'	taki' < *taqi	'to defecate; feces' sugkay	'to harrow a ricefield'	takinis	' type of [vine]
Sut-suk		takleb <	'cover' taklib	'to pass by'
		takling	'to be careful of'

takluy	'to stop by for'	tarampakan<	'sole of the foot' takmed	'to keep the lips shut'	tarka'	'to lay claim to something ahead of time' takras	'to suddenly ^{but} escape for safety'	taripekdelen	'short and stout of body' taksa'	'to predict future, guess'; 'to discover what another is thinking' ^{by provoking a response}	taruktuk<	'clucking of hen to call her chicks' taktak <	'to become detached and to fall'	tekme'	'to saturate with liquid by dipping' taku' < *taguh	'knowledge, cleverness'	tegka'	'extent of'
takun' < *tagun	'year'	tika'	'to have into view' takwal	'to climb up, scale'	tikangkang<	'to be lying on the ground with all four legs sticking straight up' takyud	'to jerk suddenly forward'	tiki' < *taki?	'gecko lizard' takyul/takwil	'G-string'	tikig	' type of [snake]' takyup	'to close, envelope' ^{within}	tiklud<	'squat down with one hand balancing weight on the ground' tagkes	'to secure by lashing together'	tiknguk	'buzz of conversation in uninterested audience' tagkup	'hide behind tree'	tikmi'	'taste a little bit of a beverage' talakinep' < *taRaqinap	'to dream'	tikungkung	'to bend down on one knee' talangked	'what my luck brings me'	tinukdulan	'monthly gift to fiancée (from turul 2 yiw.)' talkem	'to keep the lips shut'	tingkal	'to be exposed to light' talipaka' < *tali+paka?	'frog'	tingku' <	'for head to strike something hard inadvertently' tankem' < *tamken	'hankering for certain foods by pregnant woman'	tingkuy<	'nape of the neck' tampak	'to sink down deep in'	tukang<	'bamboo with branches cut short for stepping on, used for negotiating a cave' tamuska'	'to take unfair advantage of'	tukas	'to prop open' tangkal <	'pen or cage'	tukaw	'to go ahead, previously' tangkeb<	'completely covered'
tangked	'to definitely agree to do something'
tapuk	'fine dust'

tukbul	'stomach-ache caused by unripe fruit'	wakay	'grape-like fruits of a certain vine; to reveal the evil deeds of someone in order to shame him' tuklaraw	'to stand on tiptoe and ^{extend the} with neck extended to get a better view'	waki'	'to strike someone behind you with a backhanded motion of forearm and fist' tukmal	'to lose interest in a certain food' to have food go against you	yaked	'hock, back of knee' tuku' <	'prop to hold window open'	yaken *i+ákən	'me' (alternate of yeen , emphatic possessive set) tukud *tuqád	'stump; support for flooring of a house; to initiate something'	yaku *i+akú	'I' (alternate of yuu , emphatic set) tukug	stump of [sting ray]	gakudyakud	'jumping up and down of baby being held under armpits' tukyad	'to interfere with what someone is doing in a playfull manner'	(-ak) tukyap	'to be flipped over by wind'	agak	'hard breathing' tugkay	'fine comb used to get rid of lice'	ambak	'to pile up on top of something' cf. tambak tuluk	'for a rooster to crow'	asak *hasaq	'to hone on whetstone' tungkuy	'bent over sitting position with head resting on something'	awak	'structural part of roof parallel to ridge pole' tutubukan	'summit, extreme top of'		'to have a miscarriage' ukab	'to become detached from'	ayakayak	'for light to show through holes in the roof' ukad	'food that expands in volume while being cooked cooked'	baak < ba'ak	'bark of skin of bamboo used for tying' ukban	'orange tree and its fruit'	bakbak *baktak	'to tear or rip apart' uki	'to be agreed upon'	balanak <	type of [fish] uksibar	'observe'	bangkak	'to take a big bite out of'
ukum	'to hold water in one's mouth'	batak <	'haul up something by rope' ukupar Sp	'occupy'	bayawak <	'tree lizard' ugkal	'loose, ajar' (cf. agkal)	begsak <	'to fall heavily to the ground' ulandakay	'for a monkey to move along the tree tops'	belak < *belaq	'to split open' ungkuy	'friend'

belnak	'sickness caused by breaking taboo'	lamtak	'perfectly smooth surface of sea or lake' bengak	'to pry open'	lapyak	'to sit cross-legged' biklak	1 piece of ^{spl. t} bamboo'	lawak	'sensation of fear of height' bulaklak <	'flower'	lawak < *lawaq	'spider' bulagtak	'to be spread around'	lepak < *Rabáq(?)	'to burst, split open; to shout' bulyak	'for a liquid to bubble'	leyak	'to expand in size' bunak <	'to wash clothes'	libak <	'to speak ill of a person in his absence' burak <	'fruit'	luak < *lu'ak	'plant' ketak <	'clucking of hen when startled or after laying egg'	lugak	'slack, loose', cf. ugkal, ag' kukak <	'sound made by frog'	luntak/lumtak	'to cause oneself to abort a fetus' dapak	'to slap with fingers together'	lupakpak	'to ^{sit} sit with the legs underneath the body' dilak < *dilaq	'tongue'	mamak < *mamaq	'chew betel quid' egakegak	'to expand in size'	nanak < *nanaq	'pus' elak	'to be marooned'	nipak < *nipaq	'nipa' eyak < hayaq	'shame'	panak < *panaq	'to shoot spear gun or bow and arrow' gak gaak	'V-shaped indentation in outer edge of reef'	pakpak < *pak+pak	'wing of a fowl or of an airplane'; 'individual feather' gakgak <	'crow'	papak < *pak	'slap with the hand' galuak	'to scream'	pasak < *pesaq	'to insert a wedge to cause splitting or to seal up crack' isiak <	'to cry out'	cf. pesak istak	'to stay put, to store up'	pasakpasak	'waterfall' itak < *hitaq	'groin' TAG hita? ^{hish}	patak	'to become detached and fall to the ground' lagbak	'to reach the limits of growth'	piak <	'baby chick' lagpak <	'to loose in a contest, to speak harshly to someone'	pisak <	'to wedge something in to tighten ^{insert to cause splitting or} lagamak	'cracking sound of tree falling or of sustained gun-fire'	puak	'esophagus' lampak	'to knock or beat with a stick, e.g. fruit on a tree, to fall heavily contact with ground.'	pulak	'one-tenth of a ganta'
		Pulakan	'small can used for measuring portions of rice' to ground so that whole body is in pulalak	'air bubbles in water'	tumpalak	'to disagree openly' puswak <	'for plug to suddenly blow out and release pressure'	udak	'completely consume' rusdak	'to be rotten away'; <small>esp. flesh</small>	ulak < *lu'áq	'to spit out mucous' sabak <	'lap, to hold on lap'	upak <	'remove bark or skin' saksak < *saksak	'to stab'	utak < *hutək	'brain' salak < *salaq	'sin, fault'	wasak	'spread out, disperse' sibak	'gluttonous'	wakwak	'type of [worm]' sibak	'bite of a fish'	(-ek) sigagak	'to blaze up'	abək	'to discourage someone from doing something' sirak <	'sun's sending out rays of light'	akdek	'to know' sirak	'to delouse'	alekalek	'gurgling, gagging sound in throat, esp. of sick child requiring certain type of sacrifice' tabak	'stinger of the sting-ray'	amek	'sleeping mat' tagbak	'to be saturated with'	anek	'sound sleep' talangkak	'to laugh scornfully at'	aranek	'low' tatak	'to hack off branches of trees felled in swidden to aid drying process'	danek	'to descend' telak	'to plant seed in holes made by dibble-stick'	banek	'to criticize' tenak < *tənaq	'split up so as to share'	basek	'type of [tridacna shell]' tigbak	'to be seriously hurt'	bayek < *bayəʔək	'mumps' tilak <	'to lick'	beek	'to be drifted away' tindak	'location directly across from'; <small>To cross over directly</small>	belek	[tridacna shell] tulak <	'push away from'	beledyek	'type of [palm-tree]' tuldak	'descend'	berekberek	'to be confused' tambak <	'to pile up on top of something'	beyek < *bəRək	'baby pigs' tumbak	'to jab at with a pole'	bintek	'rice grains ^{broken} crushed in hulling process' danek	'descend'

		dasek	'to wedge something tightly to stuff'

dekdek	'to stare hard at'	santeksantek	'type of snake' elek	'to sleep'	sinek	'to be disgusted with'
elnek	'to tuck one's head in between one's shoulders or for tortoise or turtle to pull inside its shell'	sepek	'highest point of high tide' getek <	'over crowded'	tagek < *gatəq	'blood, sap' ibekibek	'to make a movement'	tagnek	'to tie the hair in a knot' ignek	'to tuck one's head between one's shoulders for protection'	talek	'to dance (traditional)'
lagemek	'crunchy sound'	talektek < tu/engkek	'house lizard' 'to laugh in jest' laperek	'specks of dirt'	tambek <	'fat' lapnek	'foam, froth'	tampek	'to cover over with'
latek	'staghorn coral'	tanek < *tanəq	'ground, earth' lebek <	'to pound rice, to be destroyed'	tarektek	'close together in succession' leek < *luʔək	'cove' → bay	tebek	'to penetrate with sharp point' lemek	'soft, tender'	tektek <	'rust'; 'to chop up finely; 'a kind of biting fly'; gaze penetratingly at lepek	'low with regard to some point'	tedek	'deeply penetrating' letek	'speck in the eye; omen'	tenek <	'thorn' mekmek	'to make no response when one is due'	temek	'crushed' neknek <	'sand flea'	tepek	'close' pangkek	'for tide to come up to maximum depth'	tiblek	'the line where the deep of the ocean meets the wall of a reef, the drop-off' payek	'sap'	ulagek < *huləq	'to snore'
pelek	'to throw away'	yabekyabek	'slim' perek	'for a flow to cease'	yantekyantek	'to be bounced around or jolted) pesek < *pəsəq	'to be broken into pieces, e.g. glass'	yenggek / yenggek	'to loosen by working back and forth' sablek	'to crave fish'	yesek / yesek	tender twigs twig' santek	'sun sets behind mountain, horizon'

(-ik) abtik <	'alert, fast' [fish]	pisik	'to pick up' alikalik	'lateral and pectoral fins of fish'	purasik	'to squirt or spray' arikik	'mildew'	putik <	'go ⁶ vey mud' balatik <	'pig trap; constellation of Orion'	siksik <	'type of rattan' barik < *baDiq	'to break, snap in two'	taliktik <	'to eavesdrop or spy on'

balik <	'return'	tiktik <	'spy'
biik	'to turn over something heavy'	tiik < *tahi ^q	'to sew' binik < *bənhiq	'seed'	tilik	'sea-urchin, (edible)' bitik <	'tick'	tirik	'a drop'
buragsik	'diarrhea'	taldik	'praying mantis' dalik < *daliq	'short and sweet'	tumatik -uk < *uliq	'spear-gun' 'return' daliik	'to move ever so slowly'	abuyuk	'lake' diik	'to extend almost to the ground due to weight; for turtle to crawl up on the beach to lay eggs'	aluk	'to suck out viscrea' giik < *g-iheq	'to urinate'	baruk	'type of tree whose bark is used for caulking' ilikilik	'high-pitched call of certain birds'	batuk	'to oppose, fight against' lapik	'break of corn from stalks'	bukbuk < *bug+bug	'to pour out or dump out a liquid' lasik	'to spray out upon'	bugsuk	'sharpened stake, drop of rain' lasik	'to tear'	buluk < *būluq	'species of bamboo' latik <	'the hardened substance left in frying pan after processing coconut milk for coconut oil'	bunuk < *bunug	'for wild pig to slash open assilant with tusk' pilik < *piliq	'to choose'	bungkuk	'node on bamboo' pilikpilik	'were-bird used by witch'	butuk < *butug	'scrotum, as a whole, including testicles' pitik <	'chalkline used for sawing straight line'; 'when muscle suddenly contracts'	dagumuk	'for a group of people to rush toward someone' pitik-pitik	'to pluck strings of an instrument'	daluk	'greedy, gluttonous' duuk	'to reach inside enclosed place with hand to remove something' gukguk	'owl'	putukputukan	'summit, very top of'

ingaluk	'to request'	puyuk	'to bore a hole in something' lagupuk	'slapping sound made by water'	sampuluk ^e *puluq'ten' lamtuk	'pluck off'	saruk	'to dip water' landuk	'metal'	sigalpok	'to make a splashing noise' latuk	'edible seaweed, like small green grapes'	siruk	'burn' lauk-lauk	'penetrates right through; see through something'	sulsuk <	for pointed object to enter the ear limpasuk	'depressions in mud-bottom of tidal flats, caused by action of tide and waves'	suntutuk <	'to hit with fist' lubuk <	'rotten'	sapuk	'to spout up; to scatter eliminate lupuk <	'to explode'	tabuk < *tabuk	'smoke' all members of a group luuk, luuk *luhaq	'tears'	talingkuk	'mudskipper' lutuk < *lutuq	'ripe, to cook'	taluk < *taRuq	'hide' luyuk	'to jab with finger or stick; to incite'	taluktuk	'pimple' mangaluk	'witch who sucks out viscera' (from aluk)	talukluk	'gray heron' mukmuk	'bamboo borer'	tambuk/tabuk <	'to traverse a channel between the two islands' parukpok	'sound of something falling heavily'	tapuk	'to store away secretly' piluk < { *pilug *piluk	'bent'	taripukpok	'to cluster around' pukpok <	'to flop around on the ground; drive nails; to shout in anger at another; to pull out feather of chicken'	tayuk	'to insert rope, string through aperture' punuk *panuq	'full'	tigsuk	'to surface dive head first, straight down' puntukpuntutuk	'spotted'	tuktuk <	'bird's beak', 'to peck', 'to knock on'
pusuk *pusuq	'banana bud before opening up and developing'	tukuk	'to duck one's head' tularuk	'mast'
		tulduk < *tuldug	'finger; to teach; to point' tulpuk	'to dip briefly in water' tumbuk < *tumbuk	'period, point' tumpuk < *tumpuk	'to be piled up' turuk < *tuDuq	'to drip' tuyuktuyuk	'pointed'

xjak ukay < *hukay (?)	'to stir gently with ladle' ukuk	'cockroach'
ulik < *ulig	'to return home, to return to normal'
umpuk	'to pile up' of Tumpuk
uruk	'young leaves'
urukuruk	type of [snake]
utuk	'to pick off or pluck something attached to something else' ;
*hutak	'brain'
yukyuk	'corner, or confined space'
yusuk/yusuk	'to rub one's eye with the knuckles in order to relieve an irritation' kalag	'the immaterial part of a person that lives on after death, but has no real function during one's life'